EVERYTHING TURNED TO COLOR

Debut album Life Imagined out June 23rd

Brand new Brooklyn-based trio, Everything Turned To Color, announces its debut album, Life Imagined, due out June 23rd 2017. The 11-track LP was recorded, mixed and mastered by Blake Morgan at ECR Music Studios, and the album was recently previewed at two back-to-back sold-out sets at Rockwood Music Hall in NYC.

Everything Turned To Color includes brothers Bryan and Kyle Weber, two ex-alt-rock bandmates who co-own DIY tour booking website IndieOnTheMove.com (which services nearly 100K members) and their classically trained neighbor, Neha Jiwrajka, who left a tech job at Google to pursue a Masters in Jazz and vocal performance. Starting March 25th, the trio will hit the road for a 24-date tour through NY, CA, PA, VT, MA, ME, CT and NJ, bringing their Beatles meets Ella Fitzgerald-esque sound to listeners across both coasts.

Says producer Blake Morgan: "It's rare that I'm hit this powerfully with new music—truly goose-bump inducing—and as a result, I'm not only a fan but completely sure that great things lie ahead for this band."
